PEEKY

This will be the first issue in quite a long time to be produced within the deadline period-Santa Claus was very good to me, In that I now have a good supply of Paper and Stamps, at least for the next three issues now since I am going to work three Xmas holidays plus Saturday and Sunday. Things should be a little more easy to cope with this year.

A new magazine has emerged from the ashes of the Old, taking under its wings the fast fading Limbeur Gazette. Published under the joint Leadership of Larry Feng (704 Alice Street, Oakland, Calif., 94607) and Lee Childs 450 Linfield Ave. McMinnville Ore; 97128. And if the last couple of issues are any indication of what is to come, then the Diplomacy world is going to be blessed once again with a magazine to equal the slow but still alive International Enquirer. My congratulations to both Larry and Lee each issue gets much better than the previous one.

WINTER CORRECTION: The Italian Fleet Naples retreated to the Ionian, since that under the rules of Diplomacy, the retreating unit must be counted first before any builds or Removals, I have allowed the Italian player to resubmit his removal orders. But in the future take heed in the fact that a unit that is forced to retreat and no order is given for that unit, it then will be wiped off the board.

AUSTRIA TO GERMANY: How about some support into Sevastopol?.

GALLIPOLI(LURCH): Speaking from the steps of the brothel of the Only true Art, General Ull am Quat issued a plea for the peaceful resolution of world problems and announced his resignation as C-in-C. "I have just returned from the site of the battle of Harold's Penn (Is that a Pun?) and what I saw there has sapped my will to continue, I can no longer face the carnage. The mutilated remnant of what was once grammatical prose...no, I cannot continue."

CONSTANTINOPLE(GOD): For the love of Mike, Pete, Mether, apple Pie, the English language...for crissakes! Indeed, in deed, "Forces" indeed. That's "Forms", you dimwit! (Are you referring to me or Larry)?.

Under the section Winter Correction, that should be the retreating Army Venice.

BREST-LITOWSK(FER): Who's afraid of the big bad Turks?. Come on, John! How would you like to Winter in Venice.?

PARIS: The Government of France is not unaware of the potential threat of the Turkish hordes. More important, though, is the fact that Russia continues to occupy positions on the border of France. Therefore, there is some question in the minds of the people of France as to which heathen herds presents the greater threat to the security of France.

III

11:15 A.M.

ENGLAND (White): The search continues for the location of the secret laboratory of Count Peery. It appears that the evil Count has placed the terror upon the "Peery's pen". Invalids returning from London report to have seen men dropping in their beds in different houses.

FRANCE (Birsean): His Imperial Majesty's Government today released the following statement: "In line with traditional English policy that action must, now, be taken by his Majesty's Government has, until this moment, been awaiting on the steadily deteriorating state of affairs between England and France. Inspite of persistent French provocatory actions, intimidations, and outright aggression the Government has been patient and made every effort to maintain the delicate balance of peace along the Channel. However, the French invasion of his Majesty's waters and territories, including even the Isles themselves has resulted in his Majesty's decision to declare a State of War between the two Nations. The Parliament has consented and voted the necessary funds to maintain those forces needed to bring the war to speedy and honorable end. The Government has, while not abandoning abandoning the hope that French leaders will see the stupidity of their actions and give up their aggression taken all necessary steps. The Government has also invited leaders from Russia to London for consultations on establishing a joint war effort. His Majesty has announced the appointment of Sir. Winston Churchill as War Minister and Sir Horace Grenville-Dewitt as Home Minister for the duration. Prime Minister Bangs Leslie Tapscott will continue in that position. The newly established Ministry of Penmanship will be directed by Lady Margaret Gemignani."

LINTON-ABBEY: Rumors of the establishment of a highly secret government installation near here continues to circulate through the small town. Local shepherds report the erection of several large launching towers east of the village.

LIVERPOOL: The City was declared open today as English forces moved eastward into the Hills above the City. Major-General Jack Greene, who was responsible for the defense of the City has been cashiered and transferred to command of the Weather Station North-North-East, at Walla Walla, Cernwallisland.

HELSINKI: English troops of the Royal Imperial Guard today left here for Narvik. Reports that the troops had been called home to strengthen the defense of the homeland came amidst rumors that the Royal War Council was seriously considering abandoning the entire Northern front and establishing a joint occupational force with the Russians.

And the battle of the typewriters continues and continues..and who said I didn't print press releases.

VENICE:-Austrian troops occupying Venice, have been seen swimming in the canals. Hundreds have been dying from various afflictions. this is not due to the climate of Italy, as our Austrian foes have claimed, but because venitians have yet to install indoor plumbing and you must literally step out. to the house of death.

VENICE-The Local Police have known no such increase of incidence in peoplemory since the Austrian Army moved into the city. Austrian troops are seen upon varied floatation devices, on thier backs, flashing lights at the undersides of those small, stilt-like buildings near the residences of the citizens.

NOTE-Does anybody know where I can find a replacement player for Checko-Polska, just in case?. If you do have him write to me fast or send in Fall Moves.

ANKARA: Hello out there! the New Premier of the Turkish Hegemony(?) Greets the heads of state of Russia, Ukraine, the Balkans, Italy, and Checko-Polska, and extends best wishes and the best of luck to both enemies and allies. Best wishes also extended to Iberia, France, England, Germany and Possibly Fennia-Scandia.

(NOTE)-Due to excess publishing loads now extended upon David May by Ned Walker, Dave had to resign his position it is now being assumed by Stephan Ball (See Roster).

LONDON-Ministry of Naval Affairs:-The Sea Lord has ordered all active units to sea and has ordered all reserve units to immediate active service. Lord Fielderol, VO, BMC, VIP, was overheard to say, "The brave lads will remain at sea until such time that the European powers decide upon a mere rational way of settling their petty differences." So it seems that the Commonwealth's naval forces will remain at sea for near unto an Eternity.

MOSCOW-Peace to all the breathmen of the European Continent.

PEERY ANSWERS WHY TWO BRESTS

One or two? A simple question, perhaps, perhaps not. Surely it is a matter for deep thought and much examination. Perhaps it is a part of a greater question, one sex or two? Surely God created two sexes, he had some purpose in creating two breasts (Play on words) But what was that purpose?

Let us consider what might have happened had God only given women one breast. The Mona Lisa would have had only one/which complicates things, where? The right? the Left, or in the middle?/. Tepless bathing suits would have been only half as appealing. Go-go dancers would have had only half as much material to work with. The Possibilities for confusion are endless.

But, in his infinite wisdom God did grant that women should have two breasts and I suggest that man, with his highly limited intellect that cannot solve such minor problems as pollution, Vietnam, and racial unrest, can no more easily understand the answer to this one. Therefore let us not worry about it and merely enjoy his generosity and remember that a Breast in France and a Breast in Poland isn't half worth half a dime in comparison to two of your own. (any answers?)

NOTE-I hope to have shortly a new set of maps, much better than the first, it will be done probably by the next issue.

Andrew Phillips-Take heart my fellow man, I started out with Checko-Polska in Perry's game and with a little skill and a lot of treachery, I managed to run my seven units up to 27, By conquering all of Russia and the Ukraine and parts of Germany and Fennia-Scandia.

Perhaps Mr Peery will offer us a reason why he did Brave New World in the first place, maybe in an installment series??????, HUH HUH

The French Army Belguim and the Italian Army Trieste are both annihilated. The situation around Belguim is that the Army Belguim cannot cut the support of the Army Ruhr against itself, had the attack came from Burgundy then it would have been a complete standoff.

CONSTANTINOPLE: The Sultan presumes that Italian fleets will venture no further than the Ionian Sea, as the Aegean and the East Med are considered sacred to the faithful of Islam.

MANCHESTER(DAMN)-Dick, if you miss and if you don't write I am going to become a Franceophile FAST. George, are you listening?.

LIVERPOOL(LUV): Who dat dere ussing that DDDT'ing.

RECENTLY AS far as I known there is no change of address for Dick neither no recent move wasn't any in his letter with his moves.
